Maajid Usman Nawaz (Urdu: [ˈmaːʒɪdʳ nˈwaːz]; born 2 November 1977) is a British activist and radio presenter. He is the founding chairman of Quilliam, a counter-extremism think tank that seeks to challenge the narratives of Islamist extremists, and the host of a radio show on LBC, every Saturday and Sunday.

Maajid Nawaz – Wikipedia

Maajid Nawaz is the co-founder and executive director of Quilliam and founder of Khudi. He was formerly on the UK national leadership for the global Islamist party Hizb ut-Tahrir and was involved in the organisation for almost 14 years. He served four years in an Egyptian prison as an Amnesty International 'prisoner of conscience', until he became de-radicalised and renounced his extremist views.

Radical: My Journey from Islamist Extremism to a Democratic Awakening by Maajid Nawaz (Virgin Books) I'm a teacher and I'm on my summer holidays as I write this. One of the first things I'm going to do when I get back to work is to ensure the school library stocks a copy of Maajid Nawaz's Radical.

Book review: Radical by Maajid Nawaz | New Humanist

Synopsis Born and raised in Essex, Maajid Nawaz was recruited into politicised Islam as a teenager. Abandoning his love of hip hop music, graffiti and girls, he was recruited into Hizb ut-Tahrir (the Liberation Party) where he played a leading and international role in the shaping and dissemination of an aggressive anti-West narrative.

Radical by Maajid Nawaz | Waterstones

Maajid Nawaz subtly reveals much in his seemingly effortlessly titled, Radical: My Journey Out of Islamist Extremism. The word radical, though often used in modern English to mean extreme, actually derives its meaning from the Latin word radix, meaning, "root."

Review of Maajid Nawaz's 'Radical'

In Pakistan, one of the most troubled countries in the world of Islam, Nawaz is organizing an uphill battle to promote the radical idea of real democracy through an organization called Khudi. And...

Radical by Maajid Nawaz - Penguin Books Australia

Maajid Nawaz makes clear the powerful mutualism between the racism of the far right and Islamist radicalisation. He also clarifies the difference between Islam as a religion and Islamism as a militant political movement, dedicated to the revolutionary spread of political Islam, in particular, the overthrow of those secular dictatorships supported by the West.
