period. The first edition
was published
posthumously in 1702.

The text is written in the form of a prose and verse travel diary and was penned as Bashō made
an epic and dangerous journey on foot through the Edo Japan of the late 17th century. While ...

The Narrow Road to the Deep North is the novel in an advanced and
showy state of dissolution. It is as though the
contemporary novel –
like film (4-D, coming soon to a cinema near you), like theatre, like so much else – is in competition with itself,

When the Japanese haiku master Basho composed The Narrow Road to the Deep North, he was an ardent student of Zen Buddhism, setting off on a series of travels designed to strip away the trappings of the material world and bring spiritual enlightenment. He writes of the seasons changing, the smell of the rain, the brightness of the
